APPINGHAM

The Bible says in Psalms 100: "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness: Come before his presence with singing."

This is exactly what happened at Buckingham Central High School on Sunday, August 27, where a gospel sing was given to collect free will gifts to help Rev. David H. Justus with expenses caused by his third and nearly fatal heart attack. His doctors admit that God granted a miracle when they had given him up.

Many singing groups were invited but for various reasons some were unable to attend. Those who did come were "The Rocks Quartet," "The Cedar Quartet," "The Crusaders," "The Prospect Quartet" and "The Mineral Springs Choir." These groups were really wonderful and everyone who came went away feeling they had heard sermons sung in a beautiful and joyous way.

Anyone wishing to send a gift or card to Rev. Justus may send it to:

Rev. David H. Justus
Buckingham Court House, Va. 23921

The gospel sing was planned and organized by Mrs. Pauline K. Gunter and Rev. Don Bryant of the Don Bryant Evangelistic Association and they wish to express their thanks all who took part.

Rev. Bryant will be preaching at Pleasant Baptist Church on Sept. 10th and 24th at 2P.M.

Impression Of Picture Of Clouds

Delly O'Brien of Appomattox phoned in to the TIMES-VIRGINIAN office to say that he had studied the picture published in last week's issue and could see the figure of Jesus with outstretched hands. It reminded him of a picture he had seen in an old family Bible he has at home.

Mrs. A. B. Abbitt, of Appomattox also identified the form of Christ in the picture.

Regional Center Of U-VA Offers College Courses

The Lynchburg Regional Center of the University of Virginia School of Continuing Education released today a list of forty-one classes to be offered in Lynchburg, and in the central southside section of the state, served by the Lynchburg Center. The courses are those normally taken in the third or fourth year of college, or on the graduate level. Included in the offerings are courses in professional education, on both the graduate and undergraduate level, graduate level English, History, Mathematics, and Engineering courses, and an undergraduate level Library Science course.

Two courses are offered in cooperation with the Lynchburg school system as a part of the State Service Program, as follows: Mathematics 147: Probability, Statistics, and Finite Mathematics and Education 157: Audio-Visual Instruction.

Registrations for each class will take place at the first meeting of the class at the time, date, and place for the class as shown in the schedule.

Copies of the schedule are available at the Lynchburg Regional Center of the University of Virginia, 2044 Arlington Building, 2600 Memorial Avenue, during regular office hours, from 8:00 - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday each week.

The office is located on the second floor of the Tarkington Building, but is easily accessible from either level. There is ample parking available.

Detailed information regarding area classes is available from the office of the Division Superintendent of Schools of the county or city is which the class is scheduled, or from the Lynchburg Regional Center of the University of Virginia, School of Continuing Education, phone 845-6033.

Additional Courses are being added to the list from time to time. Interested individuals are encouraged to inquire about these late additions by calling the Lynchburg Regional Center.

Appomattox Rescue Squad Answers Call When Father And Son Drown

The Appomattox County Rescue Squad, the Concord Rescue Squad and the Lynchburg Life Saving Crew responded to the call on Sunday afternoon when a Lynchburg man and his 8 year old son both drowned in Phoebe Pond near Concord in Appomattox County at 5:15 p.m.

The body of Melvin Smith, Sr., 39, of Route 4, Lynchburg, was recovered by the Appomattox Rescue Squad and the body of his 8 year old son, Melvin Smith, Jr., was recovered by the Concord Squad.

The son apparently slipped from the dam into the water while fishing and his uncle, William Smith, jumped in and grabbed him. The boy's father, who apparently panicked, jumped in landing on top of the two, causing the uncle to lose his grip on the boy. None of them knew how to swim but a companion, Merle Callinder, on the shore, threw out his belt to William Smith thus saving him from drowning, too.

The bodies were found not more than ten feet apart in 10 to 12 feet of water at the base of the dam. The body of the father was brought to the surface shortly after 7:00 p.m., about a half hour after the boy's body was recovered.

Seven members of the Appomattox County Rescue Squad responded to the call.
